

Mr David Governey is an internationally experienced financial and operations professional, and a Chartered Accountant (1974). Between June 1989 and December 2014, David served as Director of Finance /Chief Operating Officer in three CGIAR Institutes. He was Director of Finance and Administration at the International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI) based in Washington DC from November 2001 to December 2014. From January 1996 to September 2001, he was Director of Finance and Chief Operating Officer at the International Water Management Institute (IWMI) headquartered in Colombo, Sri Lanka. IWMI has program offices in Africa and Asia. From June 1989 to January 1996, David served as Director of Finance at the International Institute of Tropical Agriculture (IITA) headquartered in Nigeria with a mandate for agricultural research for development in sub Saharan Africa. Between 1978 and 1989, David worked with PriceWaterHouse in Dublin as a senior manager. He also spent two years in Zambia with Peat Marwick Mitchell. David served as a nonexecutive Director of the Association of International Agricultural Research Centers (AIARC) from 2007 to 2014. He currently serves as a nonexecutive director of two non profit organizations, Self Help Africa headquartered in Dublin and Partner Africa headquartered in Nairobi. His areas of expertise include financial and operational management, international accounting and auditing standards, corporate governance particularly in international organizations, strategic planning, risk management and auditing oversight, human resources and resource planning especially for long term projects.