

Mr Gordon MacNeil is a Canadian national. From 1971-74, he taught in the West Indies and in 1975 joined the International Development Research Centre (IDRC), based both in Ottawa and Senegal. In 1988 he joined the CGIAR as the Director of Finance and Administration of WARDA (now AfricaRice), and in 1992 was Senior Financial Officer at the CGIAR Secretariat World Bank, responsible for CGIAR system financial management initiatives. From 1998 to 2005 he had CGIAR managerial/Directorship assignments at IRRI, ISNAR, and ILRI. He was a consultant to many CGIAR centres until 2011-2013 when he joined the new CGIAR Consortium Office as Corporate Services Director. From 2008-2010, he was a member of CIAT board (Chair in 2008- 2009), and served on the Board of CATIE in Costa Rica from 2010-2016, He is currently on the Board of Directors of AVRDC in Taiwan, as well as the AfricaRice Board. Gordon has a BSc (Concordia), a Diploma in Development Studies (Univ. of Ottawa), and an MBA (Univ. of Western Ontario).